

KINSEY

The band Kinsey has been performing in the central Pennsylvania area for about ten years, building a following and working professionally with business owners throughout the area. No detail is overlooked in their live production whether you are looking at the cover song selection, live sound quality, special effects lighting, or their charismatic stage presence. Kinsey's performances are sharp and restless, giving their overall presentation a constant agitation. The band consists of four members: John Springer on lead guitar, Josh Krebs on rhythm guitar, Michael Krebs on bass guitar, and Joe Swope on Drums and percussion. All members of the band sing lead and backup vocals. The cover song selection covers a wide spectrum of styles and eras and are all performed with the highest possible energy and accuracy. Kinsey also has nearly a dozen originals, each display catchy and often clever melodies, each with enough variation to sound distinct. Kinsey has been featured in the PA Musician Magazine as a headline story. They've also been featured in Shinbone Magazine, The Daily Item, as well as various online articles.
